About Kristine T

We are a family of three who will be moving to Ireland from Malta. I and my husband are professional engineers in the pharmaceutical/healthcare and IT sectors, respectively. We pride ourselves on being neat, organized, and quiet tenants. With this move, we are going to be landlords ourselves for our property in Malta, so we truly understand the importance of maintaining a property with care and respect. Rest assured, we will treat your home in Cork as if it were our own. We are looking for a suitable property to rent as we start our new life in this beautiful Irish county.

To whom it may concern I can confirm I acted in the role of landlord to Kristine from (state date) to (state date) Kristine was a good tenant. I had no issues with Kristine and the rental deposit was returned at the end of the tenancy. I am happy to recommend Kristine and I believe they would make a very responsible tenant for any landlord. I have known Kristine since 2015. She and I were both PhD students at Politecnico di Torino, Turin, Italy, and both Erasmus+ scholarship grantees. She and I were also office mates for four years till I completed my PhD. Kristine was a brilliant PhD student and crucially an amazing colleague/office mate. During my tenure there, I observed that she continuously showed responsibility and accountability in her work. She was also very organized in the lab and maintained cleanliness and good housekeeping of the instruments and materials. I witnessed this orderliness in her apartment as well whenever I had the chance to come by for an after-work dinner or for a get-together over the weekend. She was also a very sociable person, easy to be friends with, very cooperative and willing to assist me for any help I needed. Thus, I am happy to recommend Kristine and I believe she would make a very responsible tenant for any landlord. I have known Kristine since high school (1999). She was my roommate for four years and has been a trusted friend since then. She's very responsible and great at being accountable, both of which are critical for home rental or ownership. She demonstrates the same character in her professional life. She holds a PhD, which requires a lot of drive and motivation in completing. She has also held her job at Baxter for several years. I can fully attest to her character. Angelica Bautista, PhD
