About Daisy D

I am currently working as a postdoctoral researcher at Tyndall National Institute in Cork and have been living here since August 2024. My husband recently joined me, early in 2025 and we are now looking for a quiet, well-maintained place to call home. We are both working professionals and non-smokers and have no pets. We both have working hours from 9 am to 6pm and don't often work from home. We lead a calm and peaceful lifestyle, take pride in keeping our home clean and tidy, and would be respectful and responsible tenants.
