About Bertrand G

Hi, I'm Bertrand, I'm currently completing my Engineering Diploma through an internship at Analog Devices. I'm looking for an apartment together with my colleague Jean, who will also be joining Analog Devices for his international mobility program. We are both calm, respectful, and reliable tenants. I'm particularly attentive to cleanliness and organization, and I make sure the apartment is cleaned regularly. I also have experience managing rental properties, so I understand the importance of taking good care of a home and maintaining it properly. We are looking for a comfortable place where we can focus on our work and enjoy a pleasant living environment during our stay.
