About Krishna Chaitanya

Hi, my name is Krishna, and my wife Anu and I are currently looking for a house to rent. We are responsible and reliable tenants, and I will soon be joining Tyndall National Institute as a researcher. We are hoping to find a comfortable and well-maintained home where we can settle in and truly feel at home. We value a clean, safe, and quiet environment, and we always take care to maintain any property we live in as if it were our own. You can count on us to be punctual with rent, respectful of property rules, and committed to building a positive relationship with our landlord while keeping the home in excellent condition.
