About Pablo C

My name is Pablo, I'm a 25 year-old engineer from Valencia, Spain, currently working as an engineer at Analog Devices in Limerick. I completed both my Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Telecommunications Engineering at the Polytechnic University of Valencia, where I graduated with strong results (Master's GPA 8.7/10, and 10/10 in my final thesis). I consider myself an organized, respectful, reliable and hardworking person. Having lived with my parents while studying, I value keeping a clean and calm environment. In my free time, I enjoy reading, studying Chinese, researching about my field and practicing sports — I like having quiet routines during the week.
