About Musannif S

I'm a postdoctoral researcher currently working at Tyndall National Institute, University College Cork. I'm currently living in Cork and looking for an entire apartment to move into, as my wife will be relocating and joining me here soon. We're a responsible and tidy couple who value a peaceful, well-maintained living environment. I recently completed my PhD and am now focused on sustainability and energy efficiency research. We're looking for a cozy, quiet place where we can feel at home. Outside of work, we enjoy cooking, exploring local culture, and keeping our living space clean and organized. We will treat your property with care and respect, just as we would our own.

Other relevant personal information

I recently got married, and my wife will be relocating to Cork soon to join me. Her background is in fashion and textile design, and she is currently in the process of securing a job in her field. Once she settles in and begins working, she will also contribute to our household expenses. Together, we are committed to building a responsible and balanced life, and we look forward to contributing positively to the local community in every way we can—both professionally and personally.
