About Daniela C

Hello! I moved to Ireland in December 2015 with my children to start a new life with new opportunities. Today, one of my son is studying in Italy and the other one lives on his own. I've been living in the same house in Cork for 9 years and now my landlady needs the house for her nephews. If you think about my choice to move to another country with two children, you already see me! I am a smiling person, always positive, determined, reliable and committed. I have been working as a supervisor for Marriott in Cork City since January 2016. I am also an artist with skills in renovating, decorating furniture, items, walls and more and I'm looking for some extra space to store all my tools.
