About Baptiste C

We are a family of three, including a delightful two-year-old daughter, who recently embarked on a new adventure in Ireland. Our decision to move here stemmed from our eagerness to immerse ourselves in the rich culture and stunning landscapes this country has to offer. I am currently actively looking for a job, while my wife as started to work at cook medical. I aBoth my partner and I hold master's degrees in marketing and communication, reflecting our shared passion for creative expression and strategic thinking. As we settle into our new home, we look forward to embracing all that Ireland has in store for us, from its vibrant cities to its serene countryside.
